

R Notebook

```
housing <- read.csv("housing.csv")
```

```
housing$bedrooms <- factor( housing$n.rooms,
  levels = 0:5,
  labels = c("0 bedrooms", "1 bedroom", "2 bedrooms",
             "3 bedrooms", "4 bedrooms", "5+ bedrooms")
)

cols <- c("#4e79a7", "#f28e2b", "#59a14f", "#e15759", "#76b7b2", "#b07aa1")

boxplot(
  income ~ bedrooms,
  data      = housing,
  col       = adjustcolor(cols, alpha.f = 0.85),
  border    = "grey30",
  xlab      = "Number of Bedrooms",
  ylab      = "Household Income (£)", main      = "Household Income by Number of Bedrooms\nUK Housing Survey 2021/22", yaxt      = "n",    # custom y-axis below
  outline   = TRUE
)

axis(2, at = axTicks(2), labels = paste0("£", formatC(axTicks(2), format = "d", big.mark = ",")))

n_labels <- table(housing$bedrooms) mtext(paste0("n=", n_labels), side = 1, line = 2.5, at = seq_along(levels(housing$bedrooms)), cex = 0.75, col = "grey40") abline(h = axTicks(2), lty = 2, col = "grey80")

```

Household Income by Number of Bedrooms

UK Housing Survey 2021/22

